Editorial Review

Review

"G is for Games sounds promising with its theme of "games of skill and chance,"....Kristina Wright's "Seven Minutes in Heaven," about a young man tied in a closet so that he is "forced" to be the object of desire for a series of increasingly more aggressive and sexy women visitors was the best of the lot, and very hot and squirm-inducing; "The Big Touchdown" by Erica Dumas was surprisingly steamy as well, featuring a convincing cheerleader and football player in the back seat on touchdown night. Alison Tyler's "The Game" revved things up at the end with an edgy tale of sex and BDSM among a group of queer women rock stars and groupies...I recommend reading G is for Games for the very good stories..." -- T.R. Moss-alt.com
