Review

"Zarilli has been writing about the famed South Indian dance-drama "kathakali for two decades; this may be the most important work yet... His own expertise is unquestionable, his involvement extensive and intense. The list of videos available for several plays will make the book even more valuable for those who have never witnessed a "kathakali performance.."

-J. L. Erdman, "Choice

"The book will be useful for advanced undergraduate and graduate theatre students...this will be an outstanding book."

"There is no doubt that this is a project of ample scholarly significance, one that will be welcomed by the Asian theatre community and those who look to it for a new vision."

-Kathryn Hansen
