Editorial Review

Review

Booklist (Starred Review)

Ashley's latest flawlessly written historical romance richly rewards romance readers with its multilayered characterization; sexy, secrets-saturated plotting; sharp wit; and enthralling writing.

-- John Charles

Publishers Weekly: [R]eaders will love Ainsley, a strong, independent, cake-loving character who takes the time to consider her options rather than just throwing caution to the wind and following Cameron when he arrogantly beckons. (Aug.)

From the Author

Dear Readers:

I thoroughly enjoyed writing the love story of Ainsley and Cameron, the widow who is convinced her life will be dull and staid, paired with Cameron, the black sheep of an already scandalous family. Cameron's son, Daniel, is transitioning from boy to man, and this is also the story of how Cameron and his son try to understand each other.

The Many Sins of Lord Cameron is Book Three in the Highland Pleasures (Mackenzies) series--Cameron is the second-oldest brother. You'll see the other brothers, Hart, Mac, and Ian, and catch up a little with them as well.

Thank you so much for the warmth and enthusiasm for which this series has been received! Please see my website (jennifersromances.com) for more information and updates on the Mackenzies.

Best,

Jennifer Ashley
