Editorial Review

Review

Finally an experienced lawyer who has also worked the streets as a private detective gives us a book combining street smarts with legal authority. Ron Hankin's Navigating the Legal Minefield is a must read guide with quick answers for anyone in the profession, whether private detective, security officer, or police officer. I highly recommend it and plan on using it for my college level students in police science and members of my police department.

--Larry W. Mason, Command Officer, Ill. State Police (ret.)

Ron Hankin's book provides a brilliant account of the law that touches on investigative work...a must read for private detectives, private police or anyone interested in private investigations. Hankin simplifies complex legal topics in a clear and accessible fashion without sacrificing authority or expertise. I absolutely love this book and give it the highest recommendation!

--Matthew J. Medina, Assistant States Attorney, Cook County, Il. Author of Real World Search & Seizure

This book is a teacher's dream! As a long-time criminal law and security instructor, I highly recommend this book for the private detective or security professional, whether new or seasoned...a must-have book in the classroom or on the streets.
