Doing Qualitative Research: The Craft of Naturalistic Inquiry By Joost Beuving, Geert de Vries

Naturalistic inquiry is about studying people in everyday circumstances using ordinary means. It strives to blend in—respecting people in their daily lives, taking their actions and experiences seriously while not interfering—in order to come to theoretical understanding. This textbook offers guidance, combining thoughtful reflection with practical tips. It is written for undergraduate and graduate students in social science; for practitioners in social work, healthcare, policy advice, and organizational consultancy; and for all who have a genuine interest in society and its members.

Editorial Review

Review

“One of the best methodological treatments in contemporary social science literature. It is the type of book that students will remember as the text that moved them to serious study.”

(Michael Lewis, University of Massachusetts)
