"While most readers will receive great business insight from this book, they will also receive many life principles for our daily living."

-Matthew K. Rose, executive chairman of BNSF Railway

"A must-read for Americans of all ages and professions . . . brings Warren Buffett's commonsense wisdom together in one book. I could not put it down!"

-John G. Stumpf, chairman and CEO of Wells Fargo & Company

"This collection will give you a sense of the incredible judgment, disarming sense of humor, and commonsense perspectives behind one of the world's greatest investors."

-Kenneth I. Chenault, chairman and CEO of American Express Company

"Let me note that I did learn several new things about Buffett in this book-his dislike of diversification and his favoring concentration to build wealth; his dismissal of market assessments in favor of choosing companies whose businesses mean rising profits; saying "no" to almost everything; his dismissal of what business schools teach. I intend to place the book among the few volumes I keep close by to look at from time to time. You have winnowed much of value, and a lot of people, including me, will owe you great thanks."

-Morton I. Sosland, Editor-in-Chief of Sosland Publishing Company
